CAPT. CRAY GIVES LIE TO BURFEIND

the command of the Eldridge street station to the East Thirty-fifth street station came out to-day when Cray was placed on trial before Commissioner

Bingham at Headquarters placed on trial before Commissioner Bingham at Headquarters, He is charged with failing to stop a series of prize-fights held on Nov. 2 in the Roman Clear; muddy. prize-fights held on Nov. 2 in the Roman Athletic Club, at Grand and Orchard streets, although specific orders had been given him to prevent it Cray's defense was not heard to-day. because he was not represented by behalf on Dec. 1, and will say that he did not receive the specific orders mentioned in the charges. In the course of to-day's proceedings Cray virtually called Capt. Burfeind, formerly inspector in charge of the First District, a lier.

Burfeind Paris Charles Charles of Glycoring and a half counsel. He will be heard in his own Burfeind Backs Charge.

Inspector Russell, the first witness, produced blotters from the Eldridge street station, and said he had investigated the charges against Cray and found them well grounded.

Capt. Burfeind then took the stand. He said he was in charge of the First Inspection District on Nov. 1. The Eldridge street station is in that district. He swore that he told Cray on Nov. 1 to stop the fights scheduled at the Romann A. C. for Nov 2, and asked him on Nov. 3 why the order had not been obeyed.

"How did you tell him?" queried the obeyed.
"How did you tell him?" queried the Commissioner, curiously.
"Verbally," responded Burfeind.
When asked if he wanted to ask Burfeind any questions Cray denied receiving orders about the Roman A. C. except in a general order issued to all captains. He said Burfeind could not lave spoken to him on Nov. 3 because he was on election duty all day.
